

REMARKS

Applicants' attorney again thanks the Examiner for taking the time to meet to discuss the present case.

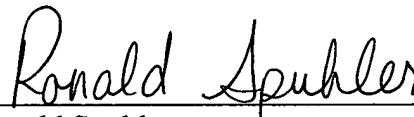

During this interview Applicants argued that the art of record does not provide the basis for a proper obviousness rejection for several reasons, including the fact that the cited art does not relate in any way to a testimonial proceeding. While the Examiner did not disagree that the art of record does not relate to testimonial proceedings, per the Examiner's request, Applicants have amended their claims to further define that a testimonial proceeding relates to a proceeding in which a court reporter is present, such as a deposition or court proceeding.

Applicants respectfully request a Supplemental Notice of Allowability. In the event that the Examiner has any questions, he is invited to call the undersigned attorney at any time

The Commissioner is authorized to charge any necessary fees or credit any overpayment to the Deposit Account of McAndrews, Held & Malloy, Account No. 13-0017.

Dated: May 25, 2005

Respectfully submitted,
